

The following word

I Alphabetical Lists

Some materials you will want to scan are arranged alphabetically. A solid understanding of the rules of alphabetical order will enable you to scan these materials quickly. The words in the following exercise have similar beginning letters and so will give you practice in alphabetical order up to the sixth letter.

Look briefly at the Alphabetical List on page 42. Notice that the words are in alphabetical order, that the first word begins with f and that the last word begins with g. Scan the word list to find each of the words in the first column below. As you locate each word, write the word that follows it in the second column.

2 แบบฝึกหัดชุดที่ 2 Three-Letter Guide Words

Many books that are arranged alphabetically, such as dictionaries or encyclopedias, have two guide words at the top of each page. Guide words may be only the first three letters of each word or they may be two complete words. They represent the first and last words or entries on the page. If the word you are looking for comes between the guide words, you will find the word on that page.

To do this drill, first look at the word you want to locate. Then look at the guide words on page 44. Decide on which page the word would appear and write down the page number.
